

I would like to see this technology made available for my use. I believe the current prices for broadband are artificially high because of so few choices. Thank you for listening.